

MRS. DR. NEWHALL
BECOMES AN ACTRESS.
Minneapolis Society Woman
Makes Her Debut
Here To-night
Says She Will Even Wear Tights
if Her New Profession Demands It.

HUSBAND AND FRIENDS OPPOSED.
She is Young, Beautiful and the Daughter of Ex-United States Senator Nelson's Law Partner—Song Writer and Composer.

Mrs. Ione Fuller Newhall, a prominent young society woman of Minneapolis and the wife of Dr. William M. Newhall, one of the most popular physicians of that city, will make her debut on the variety stage here to-night in the "sacred concert" at Proctor's Theatre, in Twenty-third street. Mrs. Newhall has determined on a stage career in opposition to the wishes of her husband and family. She is a pronounced devotee of generous proportions and has a soprano voice of considerable merit. After long hesitation she has determined even to wear tights, if in the career she has adopted it becomes necessary, no matter what her society friends in Minneapolis may think. "I can be just as much of a woman," says Mrs. Newhall, "in tights as out of them." Mrs. Newhall is the daughter of N. B. Fuller, law partner of former United States Senator Nelson, of Minnesota. She became stage-stricken while travelling in the South with her mother. She appeared at the Hotel Ponce de Leon in St. Augustine in an amateur entertainment, and was received enthusiastically. The taste of applause she then obtained decided her to go on the professional stage, and in spite of the protests of her husband and parents she insisted on coming to New York and becoming a pupil of William Courtney and George Sweet.

From time to time Dr. Newhall and her friends have tried to persuade her to give up the plan and return to her home, but it has been in vain. "I'm going ahead," she says, "but I am on friendly terms with my husband, and I have by no means given up my home. The step I am taking is in opposition to my husband's wishes. A great deal of money was spent on my voice by them all, and I have been convinced enough to believe that I sing well enough to get the money back. That is what I am trying to do."

"For a long time I stuck at the tights. I refused several offers of engagements on account of them. One offer made me so indignant that I went home and half resolved to give up the whole thing. Now I have thought better of it, and am going to wear them when it is necessary. As I said before, I think I can be just as much of a woman in them as out of them." Mrs. Newhall has written several songs and the words of some, of which the music was written by Charles I. Van Bar, two of these are "My Love in the Moon" and "The Bubble," and these will probably be included in her repertoire at Proctor's.

Mrs. Newhall's Friends Surprised.
Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 15.—Dr. W. M. Newhall is out of town for a few days. Mrs. Newhall's friends here were surprised to learn that she was to appear on the stage. They understood that she was in New York for the purpose of cultivating her voice. She has spent several previous winters there for that purpose.

OWNERS OF THE HORSA SCARED
The Ship Sold Because So Often Reported as Being a Fillbuster.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—The Danish steamship Horsa, which has had a most stormy career in connection with alleged Cuban filibustering expeditions, was to-day sold by agents of the Danish owners to a New York firm. It is stated that the vessel will continue in the West Indies fruit trade. The price paid and the identity of the purchasers has not been disclosed. Captain W. W. Ker, counsel for the Hart Line, the late charterers of the steamer, says that the sale was to appear on the owners becoming alarmed at the reports of filibustering. The trial of Captain Wiborg and Mate Peterman was held at New York, on the charge of engaging in a filibustering expedition to Cuba, which is alleged to have started from New York, is scheduled to begin in the United States District Court here on Monday.

Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. Basket Ball.
Basket ball has held a high place in the affairs of the Central Young Men's Christian Association, Brooklyn, during the past week. The afternoon and the second evening basketball teams have been well organized, and are arranging some interesting match games. The Central Basketball team has made an exceptionally good record this winter, having lost but ten games of the fifty-six played on the Central court.

Wants Some of the Jerome Estate.
As executor of the will of John A. Morris, Alfred H. Morris yesterday sued William H. Flood, public administrator, who is administrator of the estate of Leonard W. Jerome. John A. Morris loaned Jerome $27,000 in 1889, taking as collateral 270 shares of the stock of the Coney Island Jockey Club. Subsequently, the $27,000 more, the second loan was not repaid, and the shares were sold for $4,000 a week, while one "team" of horses and fields, received $1,000 per week when they performed independently of their travelling company. A few years ago such a salary was unknown and impossible.

Funeral of Congressman Crain.
Cairo, Texas, Feb. 15.—The funeral of Congressman William Henry Crain occurred here yesterday. Business in the town was entirely suspended, and 2,000 people followed his body to the grave. Governor Culberson acted as one of the honorary pall bearers with the members of Congress who escorted the body from Washington.

Ex-Senator Owens Gets a Job.
Ex-State Senator George Owens, of Brooklyn, has been appointed a deputy inspector of gauges by James S. Stewart, who was recently appointed inspector by Governor Morton. Owens will receive a salary of $1,500 per year. He is a staunch Platt follower.

GOSSIP OF THE FOOTLIGHTS.
The high-priced imported vaudeville artists who have come to these shores during the past few years do not seem to have dimmed the popularity or blighted the earning power of the local favorites. It is no unusual thing nowadays for a vaudeville star to receive as high as $400 a week, while one "team" of vaudeville artists will receive $1,000 per week when they perform independently of their travelling company. A few years ago such a salary was unknown and impossible.

The next concert of the Symphony Society, on February 28 and 29, will be of special interest, in that it marks Mr. Damrosch's first appearance in New York after his successful opera season throughout the country, and also the first reappearance of Mr. Joseph on the concert stage in New York after an absence of several years. The Symphony Society has been treating its subscribers remarkably well this season in the matter of soloists; Paderewski having appeared at the last concert and Mr. Joseph being the soloist for this concert, gives an excellent opportunity for comparing the respective merits of these two great artists.

NOW THE LAD CAN GROW.
An Enterprising Surgeon Removed a Bone
from His Brain That Had Retarded Development.

Allegheny, Pa., Feb. 15.—The medical fraternity of Western Pennsylvania is watching with interest the case of an overgrown infant boy whose head was cut open to remove a bone pressing on the brain. The boy is George W. Stewart, the nine-year-old son of George W. Stewart, of No. 16 Pine alley. Eight years ago he had an attack of cerebro-spinal meningitis, which so affected his brain that its growth was stopped. In addition the growth of his bones was also retarded, and he looks like an eighteen-months-old infant.

For the past two years the boy has suffered from epileptic convulsions. One day last week he had an attack, every half hour. Three or four times, at doctors examined the lad and said he was incurable. A young surgeon living in the neighborhood thought an operation would cure him. It was a case of kill or cure, and the parents gave their consent.

The young doctor is R. L. McGrew, a graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, and who spent two years at the Fifty-ninth Street Hospital. He removed the bone to the Allegheny General Hospital, where he prepared his skull. The operation was made over the motor area and was about two and a half inches by an inch and a half large.

He trouble was located by measuring the boy's head. Live spots, as only the left entirely free of bone. The operation was performed last Monday. Since then the boy has had no convulsions. He is getting along nicely, and there is every indication that the development of mind and body, which was stopped eight years ago, will begin where it left off.

INQUIRY INTO BOWLER'S ACTION
Can an Executive Officer Question the Constitutionality of a Law.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The House Judiciary Committee's subcommittee for Mr. Bowler's resolution regarding the refusal of the Comptroller of Bowler to certify the sugar bounty claims for payment was passed to-day on motion of Mr. Ray (Rep., N. Y.). It is as follows: "Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be and hereby is authorized and directed to inquire as to the constitutionality of the law on the subject of the right of the executive officers of the Government, in the several departments thereof, to refuse to enforce any act of Congress, or to give to any act of Congress the force of law, on the ground of its alleged unconstitutionality or for other reasons, and to report to the House by bill or otherwise."

Mr. Ray explained that the question was one of great importance. If the power existed, certain executive officers might set at defiance the laws of Congress approved by the chief executive officer of the nation. He added that the committee was of the opinion that the condition of the law ought to be looked into, and that such investigation might suggest proper legislation on the subject.

Mr. Terry (Dem., Ark.), said he was not in sympathy with the action of the committee. He believed that the right of the executive officer to be secured by the resolution, believing that an executive officer enforced an unconstitutional law at his peril.

KILLED BY A KEG OF BEER.
Fineberg Was Carrying It on His Shoulder
When He Was Tripped.

Joseph Fineberg, thirty years old, a hanger-on at Joseph Weinstein's saloon, No. 224 Madison street, was engaged by the saloon keeper at 9:30 o'clock last night to carry a keg of beer to No. 108 Madison street, on the third floor of which a wedding was in progress. In front of No. 120 Madison street some unknown person tripped Fineberg. He fell heavily, and the keg, which he carried on his shoulder, dropped on his head, fracturing his skull. He died almost instantly.

Later in the night the police arrested Jerry Barnett at his home, No. 237 Madison street. Mullen positively identified Barnett as the man who tripped Fineberg, causing his death. Barnett is well known in the Seventh Ward as a mixed ale fighter and tough character. He was taken to the Madison Street Station.

SHERVONIAN SAYS NOT GUILTY.
Arrest of the Suspected Murderer of the Armenian in Worcester.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 15.—Hagdasar Shervonian, the suspected murderer of Mesak Der Sahagian, the Armenian, who was stabbed to the heart while asleep Thursday morning, was arrested this morning on the farm of Philip Moore, about two miles from the city. He protests his innocence, and suggests that the murdered man probably killed himself. Before Judge Otley, in the Central District Court at noon, a plea of not guilty was entered for him and he was committed to bail for a hearing, no date being set. Upon the suspect was found a knife, the blade of which had been recently filed, and the man for whom he was working said that Shervonian had borrowed a file since he came there. He left the city because he had a row with the murdered man, and was afraid that the latter would kill him.

"UNCLE" AVERY Was born in Londonderry, N. H., in 1810. We have frequently published his statement that he was born, reared and has always lived in sight of the famous Longfellow Lithia Springs. He further states that the water was famous for the cure of Rheumatism and Kidney Complaints in his grandfather's days. To-day, thanks to science, we understand, in part, why this water controls these and other diseases caused by uric acid. The whole secret may never be known, because many of Nature's ways are past finding out. Hundreds have tried to imitate it, and their worthless products still encumber the market, but the public call for "Londonderry!" Every hotel and club in America uses SPARKLING "LONDONDERRY." It has also been in daily use in every hospital in the land for many years. IN FIFTY-ONE CONCERTS AND IN TWO HUNDRED LECTURES. NO PHIALS. NEW YORK OFFICE, 253 Broadway.

MURDERER DAVID HANGED.
He Protested His Innocence Just Before
His Execution.

Linn., Mo., Feb. 15.—Emil David was hanged in the jail yard here at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Death was almost instantaneous. Just before going through the trap he shouted: "I am innocent. You are hanging the wrong man."

Two years ago David poisoned Frank Henderson, a laborer on his farm. David was thirty-six years of age, was married and had three children. Allen's Art Was Too Expensive. Unless Vanderbilt Allen, who is a grandson of the late Commodore Vanderbilt, satisfies a judgment of $11,800, held by Samuel W. Nevils, as assignee of Charles B. Caldwell and William R. Bunker, he may be sent to Ludlow Street Jail, for Justice Andrews, in the Supreme Court, yesterday, adjudged the young artist in contempt. The original judgment was for $12,920. Mr. Allen gave Nevils $11,700 of that amount. The artist claims that he lost all his money in vain attempts to make his pictures popular with the masses.
